

Sunday 8th February

Heroes of Faith

In our homegroup we are currently sharing stories about individuals who made an impact because they responded to God's call on their lives and put their faith into practice.

Last week we looked at Corrie ten Boom (and her family) who at great cost supported the Dutch Resistance using their home as a hiding place for Jewish refugees, providing for them before smuggling them to safer places. Betrayed by an informant, Corrie, her sister and father were detained by the Gestapo but only Corrie lived to see the end of the war. But the two sisters kept their faith active and ministered to many during their imprisonment at a women's concentration camp. Many of you know her powerful story which didn't end there.

On a previous week we heard about the evangelist George Müller and his work with destitute children and the orphanages he established in Bristol. As a man of prayer and much faith he was able to say 'The Lord not only gives as much as is absolutely necessary for his work, but he gives abundantly'.

I'm getting some material ready to share with the group on Francis S. Collins a scientist, physician and faithful Christian who has had a distinguished career. His groundbreaking work on the cause of cystic fibrosis; director of the Human Genome Project; serving three US presidents as director of the National Institutes of Health. In a recent podcast* I was moved by how he earnestly prayed (and worked 100 hour weeks) during the development of the COVID vaccines and how he described the amazing trial results both as answers to prayer and God-given scientific knowledge. If you listen to podcasts, it is well worth an hour of your time.

There are many such stories which we can share and/or revisit for our encouragement that can spur us 'on towards love and good deeds' (Heb 10:24) and lived examples to 'imitate' (1 Cor 11:1, Phil 3:17). And of course, your faith-heroes may be known to just a few...or maybe only to you.

The flower team has met and planned the rota for arranging the flowers for the next 12 months. The cost of flowers, like almost everything has risen enormously and if anyone feels they would wish to contribute to this ministry, please give donations to Sue Graham.

In addition if there is anyone who would benefit from some flowers in case of celebration, illness or bereavement please give details to Ruth, Anne or any member of the flower team and we will endeavour to deliver them at the earliest opportunity after the Tuesday service.

You are very welcome to join us on of a Rolls Royce jet engine. But what happens when you get a minute's notice and a quality presentation is expected ?

That's when the best fun starts !!

A Date for your Diary

The Carlisle Refuge Van will be at PMC 10am Tuesday 17th March and welcomes your contribution.

They have especially asked for contributions of canned and long-life food. They tell me their stocks are somewhat depleted after the winter.

The Refuge is always grateful for any gifts of bedding, children's cots, high-chairs etc, kitchen equipment, small items of furniture (no electrical goods please), and clothing.

All items must be clearly marked i.e. size & gender suitability and must be clean and in good condition.

The Refuge are always so very grateful for our kindness and continued support.

Easy Eco Tip – February:

The RSPB's Big Garden Birdwatch

This Lent, take part in Climate Steward's Carbon Fast. Lent is a time when Christians traditionally fast and focus on God. The Carbon Fast will help you consider ways to live more simply, give you new ideas to cut your carbon footprint and invite you to focus on God and consider the whole of his creation.

Beginning on 18th Feb, you'll receive a weekly email containing key facts, suggestions for how you could reduce your carbon footprint and a prayer to lead you through this Lenten season. Each week features a different theme designed to help us take climate action in manageable ways that bear witness to a God who has promised to restore all of his creation.
