

Weekly Bulletin Sunday 24th March

Palm Sunday

And Jesus rides triumphantly into Jerusalem, as the excited crowds welcome the Messiah with shouts of "Hosanna!" The King of the Kingdom has come!

But, here is an art work from Sir Peter Blake's "Venice Suite", which I saw in a gallery in Derbyshire back in 2016. This is not Jerusalem, though. The backdrop is San Marco Square in Venice. (Blake produced a series of 20 collages, of which this is one to celebrate Venice's Biennale in 2007.) And, Jesus is not surrounded by crowds of cheering 1st Century visitors for the Passover, excited that the long awaited Messiah has arrived to liberate them from Roman rule.

Peter Blake has made a bit of a living out of cutting up old books and magazines, and then pasting the images back together as collages - most famously, perhaps, for the album cover of Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band. The mixing up of images from different original sources can make for some pretty surprising results.

Here, in this particular collage, there is a juxtaposition of Venice in the background while Jesus rides into the city on a donkey in the foreground. In front of him a man with a calf seems startled, and a man in Arabian dress points towards him. An Edwardian man in a bowler hat looks out uninterestedly. Two Greek soldiers in national dress also don't seem that bothered, and in the background, people are even less concerned by what's going on. There certainly don't seem to be crowds of people with branches and cloaks, all shouting "Hosanna!"

I guess the question kind of being asked here is along the lines of, if Jesus were to pay a visit to Penrith today (Or Potters Bar, or Peterborough, or Preston...) how would He be welcomed? Would there be crowds of excited people expecting revolution? Or would there be polite, bored indifference?

As Christians, we believe that Jesus is here, every day. We are His body, the Church. And each day, in and through us, Christ makes his entry into Penrith and the surrounding villages. We are His feet, hands, and lips, at work to build His Kingdom here. From Debt Centres and Food Banks to little random acts of kindness, perhaps unnoticed, King Jesus builds His Kingdom amongst us.

So, as Jesus enters, each day through the ministry and mission of His people, how is that welcomed, I wonder? Is it even noticed, and should we be that concerned if it isn't? So, perhaps Peter Blake is right. King Jesus enters Venice today (and Penrith) not with wild acclamation, but gently and quietly, as we His people learn to serve with the same humility that Jesus first showed on a donkey's back.

Spare Mobile Phone

I have a friend who's mobile phone is broken & she can't afford to buy a new one. Does anyone have a spare one that they don't use anymore?

If so, it would be a great blessing if you can let me have it & I will pass it on.

Kath Davidson.

Student Minister

In June, we have a student Minister with us doing a placement in our Circuit. Cassie is in her final year of training at Queen's Foundation, and will spend the month shadowing Rev. Tim, Morgan, Rev. Dave and Tracey - as well as getting involved and helping in all the life of things in the Circuit.

Cassie will need somewhere to stay while she is with us. So, are there a few of you willing to put Cassie up for a week at a time? Queen's will pay each 'home' £50 for each week she is with you, to help with costs.

If you can help, please speak to Sarah in the office.

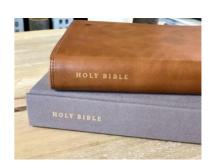

Thanks, Rev. Tim.

Spare Bibles

Churches Trust for Cumbria and National Churches Trust are holding a Training day to meet major Church funders.

The morning session will consist of presentations from some of the top funders for churches. This will be followed by a buffet lunch and a chance to network and chat. The afternoon sessions will take the form of two workshops on Tourism and Heritage to help unlock your churches potential and help you to become an attractive prospective grantee.

The whole day is free of charge and is provided in partnership by CTfC and NCT; as part of the "Cherish" project. Cherish grants fund offers between £500 and £10,000 for small repairs and maintenance to help keep churches in good condition and prevent expensive repairs.

Next Thursday, 28 March, will be Maureen Brunskill's last day of work at PMC.

 $\mathbb T$ As most of you know, after 11 years, Maureen is leaving her position $\mathbb T$ as Administrative Assistant and seeking different challenges.

Maureen has been a tremendous asset to PMC and the wider Circuit, and has dedicated so much time to serving the church and working to keep everything moving!

She has done so much more than the job description ever stated, and worked over and above anything expected of her – including covering for Michelle and Sarah when they have been away, helping with catering, and getting involved in helping with the smooth running of larger events held.

I am sure you will join us in thanking Maureen for her devotion, willingness to turn her hand to anything, her professionalism, and all she has done for PMC and this Circuit – and all she has done in helping to build God's Kingdom in this place.

Maureen – we wish you, and Alan, Philip and James, every blessing in your future. You are loved members of our family here. Thank you for all you have done. May you know God's love and joy in all your lives!

Rev. Tim, Rev Dave, and all at PMC and East Cumbria Methodist Circuit.

PLEASE HELP UKRAINE!

We are also collecting anything related to children for the orphanage and refugee centre.

Circuit Office

A reminder that the Circuit Office will be closed on Good Friday and Easter Monday.

Thought for the week...
