

Weekly Bulletin Sunday 14th September

Lost

People who know me well know that I am always losing things – keys, glasses, umbrellas, gloves etc.. I spend a lot of my time trying to remember when I last had an item, where I might have left it, where I had it last.

On a journey also, we may arrive in a strange town or city and know where we need to be but somehow manage to lose our way. The building we are looking for may be quite near but with one-way systems, no right turns etc. we don't seem to be able to reach our destination. Just as a "by the way", this never seems to be much of a problem when I am with my girlfriends, we just keep trying and laugh about it. However, when I was with my husband it was a different story - it seemed to cause major problems and we ended up with a bit of an atmosphere in the car – sound familiar?

There are also times when we can seem to be lost, we are worried about family matters, medical problems, personal relationships, or perhaps, at the moment, financial worries and no-one seems to be quite on our wave length and we don't know which way to turn. We feel alone and lost and God seems to have disappeared from our horizons.

I wonder if Peter felt lost and alone after he had denied Jesus. He had been the one with the grand gestures, the quick answer and now look what he had done; he'd blown it, big time. Would the other disciples want anything to do with him? Probably not. He was on his own, lost. I wonder if the disciples felt abandoned and afraid when Jesus was crucified. They'd given up a lot, had life changing experiences, it was all fine when Jesus was with them but now they were on their own – lost. And after the joy of the resurrection I wonder if, when they were sitting in the upper room following his ascension into heaven, they were scared, no one to guide them, what to do now, they'd feel lost. Jesus had promised that he would never leave them and that he would send his

Holy Spirit to them but I wonder if the promise seemed real. I would imagine that although they were together they would each have their own thoughts, perhaps they would bicker and disagree without Jesus there to hold them together.

Then at Pentecost they received the Holy Spirit and the whole situation changed, they felt the presence of God, right there with them and they were able to do great things.

I am sure there are people who can pinpoint a time when they felt lost and afraid and then they felt God's presence with them and, whilst the problem was not immediately solved, they felt a peace and a strength which wasn't there before.

It's a frightening experience feeling lost, particularly when you don't feel as though there is anyone with you. It's a frightening experience when God does not seem to be with us and we just feel as though He's beyond our reach, but I know that I'm not lost to God. He knows exactly where I am because He's here with me and oh, that goes for you, too.

Averil Cozens - An Update

Averil has now been discharged from the Cumberland Infirmary and has moved to Riverwell Beck Care Home (near to the hospice in Carlisle). She has a lovely room and is starting to settle in and with the aid of both the staff (great!) and a specially ordered chair, is both able to be dressed and to socialise a little with others in the day-room. It is hoped that this will be her permanent home and I do thank you all for your messages, thoughts and prayers. They have been so very much appreciated.

Easy Eco Tip – September:

The Season of Creation (1 September - 4 October) is dedicated to God as the creator and sustainer of all life. During this period of the church calendar, many churches celebrate Harvest, thanking God for His provision through the land and food that is grown. It's a time when churches and congregations are called to pay special attention to the responsibility of humanity for the Earth and for all that lives upon it, and to pray for our world. Explore A Rocha UK's season of creation resources at:

<https://arocha.org.uk/what-we-do/season-of-creation/>

Ukraine

In spite of hopes and promises, Ukraine still desperately needs our help. Some of the urgent and ongoing needs are:

- Soap
- Toothpaste
- Paracetamol
- Nappies for babies
- As always, CANDLES (Preferably plain wax ones, either new or partly used)
- Shampoo
- Toothbrushes
- Washing Powder
- Sanitary Towels

If you can give just one of these items you will be making someone's life a little bit easier.

Many thanks.
